In the event the Contract for Employment is terminated for cause in accordance with the provisions hereof, all of the University's obligations hereunder that will accrue subsequent to the date of such termination shall cease. In no case shall the University be liable to the Employee for the loss of any collateral business opportunities or any other benefits, perquisites or income resulting from activities such as, but not limited to, camps, clinics, media appearances, shoe or apparel contracts, consulting relationships or from any other source whatever that may ensue as a result of the University's termination of the Contract for Employment. The Employee shall be entitled to all notices, hearings, procedures and appeals as are provided by the University's rules and regulations for any disciplinary action against him, including the termination of the Contract for Employment, which may be taken by the University pursuant to the Contract for Employment. The Employee's employment shall not be terminated for cause without providing the Employee with written notice of the reasons for such termination for cause and without providing the Employee with an opportunity for a hearing unless waived by the Employee. That hearing shall not be a formal, adversarial-type hearing, but in combination with the Employee's right to file a post-termination grievance shall be sufficient to satisfy constitutional due process standards for public employees terminated prior to the expiration of their term contract for employment. The employee shall be entitled to consult with counsel of his choosing at the pre-termination hearing and the post-termination grievance.

15. Liquidated Damages.

A. If the University terminates the employment of the Employee without cause, it shall pay the Employee liquidated damages in an amount equal to the Annual Salary, as specified in Paragraph 3 hereof, times the number of years remaining under this Contract for Employment, such liquidated damages to be paid in equal monthly installments until the end of the term of this Contract for Employment or in a lump sum as negotiated by the parties; provided, however, that any and all amounts received by the Employee from any other employment or consulting services before the stated ending date of this Contract for Employment, shall be offset against the amount set forth herein to be paid by the University as liquidated damages. The University shall have absolutely no other obligation to the Employee if it terminates this Contract for Employment contrary to the terms hereof, except the payment of liquidated damages as provided in this paragraph and any payments referred to in Paragraph 8 hereof.

B. If the Employee terminates this Contract for Employment contrary to the terms hereof, he shall pay to the University liquidated damages in the amounts set out below, such liquidated damages to be paid within sixty (60) days of such termination by Employee:

If terminated prior to April 1, 2012, then the amount of $1,200,000.00;

If terminated between April 1, 2012 and March 31, 2013, then the amount of $1,000,000.00;

If terminated between April 1, 2013 and March 31, 2014, then the amount of $750,000.00;

If terminated between April 1, 2014 and March 31, 2015, then the amount of $500,000.00; and

If terminated after April 1, 2015, but before the end of the term of the Contract for Employment, the parties have not agreed to a specified amount of liquidated damages.

16. Limitations of Damages. The University shall not be liable for any damages or loss of any collateral business opportunities or any other benefits, perquisites, or income from any sources that might ensue as a result of the University's termination of the Contract for Employment without cause. The parties have bargained for and agreed to the foregoing liquidated damages provision.

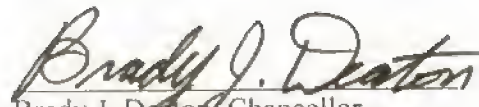

17. Law. This Contract for Employment has been entered into and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Missouri, and is specifically conditioned upon the availability of funds for this purpose.

18. Entire Understanding. This Contract for Employment sets forth the entire understanding of the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof. This Contract for Employment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, legal representatives and assigns.

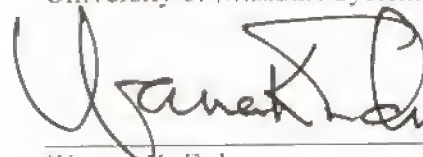

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereunto have caused this instrument to be executed this 11th day of June, 2011.
